Dear Paper Presenter,

Re: 2006 John Farndon Prize

This is to remind all paper presenters at the forthcoming Annual Scientific Meeting in Edinburgh on 3rd to 5th May 2006 that a manuscript of their paper may be submitted to the British Journal of Surgery for publication. The best manuscript to be published in the Journal will be awarded the John Farndon Prize of £500, generously endowed by the British Journal of Surgery.

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR MANUSCRIPT ONLINE (<http://www.bjs.co.uk>)

Early submission is recommended as the publication procedure can be a lengthy process. Only manuscripts published during 2006 will be considered for this year's John Farndon Prize. Manuscripts published in 2007 will be considered the following year.

Good luck!

Deputy Chief Executive
